Add on Course on “Decoding the Constitutional Obligations” Conducted by the Department of Political Science, Bangabasi Morning College on and from 15th May -15th June 2024

Department of Political Science conducted a 30-hour Add-on Certificate Course titled "Decoding the Constitutional Obligations" spanning on and from May 15 to June 15, 2024. A substantial cohort of 110 students enrolled in the course, and all of them successfully completed the comprehensive program. The esteemed Sri Atul Ch Biswas served as the course coordinator and keynote speaker, contributing valuable insights to the participants. In a nutshell, the course provided a holistic understanding of Constitutional Obligations.

Objectives

1. To provide a comprehensive understanding of the fundamental principles and features of the Indian Constitution.
2. To analyze the role of constitutional obligations in ensuring democratic governance and protecting citizens' rights.
3. To develop critical thinking skills to evaluate constitutional provisions in contemporary contexts.
4. To foster awareness about the duties of citizens as outlined in the Constitution.
5. To empower participants to engage in informed civic action and contribute to nation-building.
